

As Sudden Angels Filled the Night

Words by Toni Thomas
Music by Sally DeFord

about ♩ = 42

1. As sud - den an - gels filled the night And glo - ry spilt a -
 2. The an - gels fled, and all was still, And all was dark once
 3. The star - light falls in ten - der flood Where babe and Ma - ry
 4. Not far, an - oth - er ho - ly night, Such an - gels will at -
 5. When doubt and dark - ness ga - ther strong, Let ne - ver hope be round, The shep - herds, bright with ho - ly light, Heard an - gel voic - es more. While shep - herds haste to seek the Child, One glo - rious star is bide; The sil - v'ry light brings peace and love To all this bles - sed tend: A cross made bright by star - ry light, A tomb where death shall far: Re - mem - ber strains of an - gel song And sil - ver light of Soprano: Re - joice! Re - joice! Re - joice at Je - sus' sound: born. night. end. star.

 Alto: Re - joice! Re - joice! Re - joice! Re - joice at Tenor: Re - joice! Re - joice! Re - joice at Bass: Re - joice! Re - joice! Re - joice! Re - joice at Je - sus'

birth!
 Je - sus' birth, No more may dark - ness rule the earth!
 Je - sus' birth.
 birth!