As Sudden Angels Filled the Night

Words by Toni Thomas
Music by Sally DeFord

1. As sudden angels filled the night And glory spilt a -
2. The angels fled, and all was still, And all was dark once
3. The starlight falls in tender flood Where babe and Mary 4. Not far, an other holly night, Such angels will at -
5. When doubt and darkness gather strong, Let never hope be round. The shepherds, bright with holy light, Heard angel voic es more. While shepherds haste to seek the Child, One glorious star is bide. The silver light brings peace and love To all this bles sed tend. A cross made bright by starry light, A tomb where death shall far. Remember strains of angel song And silver light of Soprano: Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice at Jesus' birth!

sound: born. night. end. star.

Alto: Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice at

Tenor: Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice at Bass: Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice at Jesus' birth!

Je sus' birth. No more may darkness rule the earth!

Je sus' birth. Copyright 2015 by Toni Thomas and Sally DeFord
This music may be copied for non-commercial use.