

If I Have but a Moment

Solo, unison, or two-part treble voices

Sally DeFord

♩ = 60

mf

6 Unison: mp 8

1. I walk the path of life as ev - 'ry trou - bled hour I

rit. mp a tempo

10

Je - sus walked a - long the roads of Ga - li - lee, A - bout me need is great, Shall feel the com - fort of His love un - ceas - ing - ly, I seek to bear his part, to 12 mf div. 14

I not heed the wea - ry ones who beck - on me? The world de - mands my time for ma - ny live as He, to give as He has giv - en me, And all a - round me there is need un -

16 mf

pass - ing things, The Sa - vior bids me choose the bet - ter part, mea - sured still, The si - lent grief, the bit - ter word un - said,

18 20

Shall I hast - en on to an - swer com - mon calls, or shall I pause to ease the ach - ing Shall I go un - know - ing on my heed - less way, or shall I seek to dry the tear un -

unison: 22

heart? If I have but a mo - ment, shall I let it pass a - way? Can I shed?

24 div. f 26

think to do His work an-oth-er time, an-oth-er day? If I have but a mo-ment, could I 28 rit.

lift a load of care? If I have but a mo-ment, are there words of hope to share? If I have

30 a tempo 32

but a mo-ment, is a mo-ment not e-nough to do the gen-tle work of

1. mf 34 mp 2. 36

love? 2. In love?