The Most Beautiful Story That's Ever Been Told

Solo

By Sally DeFord

If you'll listen my darling,
To night 'ere you rest,
I'll tell you the story your daddy loves best,
How a marvelous thing that all children should know Happened in Bethlehem.
There were folk in the village were all fast asleep, There were shepherds out watching that night with their sheep, When a legion of angels came down from on high, And that beautiful baby was Jesus, our Lord.
Lord. It’s a story of wonder and glory and awe, filled with heavenly love and the goodness of God, learn it well, take it with you wherever you go. The most beautiful story that’s ever been told.

In a manger He lay as the angels had said, While Mary and Joseph kept watch by His bed, For the babe was our Savior, the Father's own Son, sent to love little children, and bless every one, It's a beautiful story, the sweetest I've heard, Full of comfort and hope, and it's true, ev'ry word, So re-mem-ber it al-ways, and then, when you're grown tell this sweet sto-ry to babes of your own. It's a
