When It Rains

When I wake to find that my world has changed, That this life of mine has been rearranged, There's a God above, who knows my pain, Watching over me. When it rains, Above the grey the light of day still waits for me.
Heaven keeps the glowing sun a-blaze for me when it rains, When it rains He will fill the thirsty rivers with His love, And my soul with living water from above,
My faith will grow like the rivers' flow, when it rains, When it rains, — —
When it rains, He will fill the thirsty rivers with His love.

And my soul with living water from above,

My faith will grow like the rivers' flow, when it rains.
